

Veterans' Organizations

Role and Overview

Thirteen veterans' organizations, including the Korean War Veterans, the Jewish War Veterans, the Catholic War Veterans, the Military Order of the Purple Heart, the Vietnam Veterans of America, the American Legion of Ohio, the AMVETS, the Disabled American Veterans, the Marine Corps League, the 37th Division Veterans' Association, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Army and Navy Union, U.S.A., and the American Ex-Prisoners of War, receive a subsidy from the state to help veterans and their dependents identify and claim benefits to which they are entitled. Each organization provides services to its particular constituency. State funding supplements each organization's other funding that is raised through membership dues, fund-raising efforts, private donations, and federal grants.

Executive Priorities for the Veterans' Organizations

- Support the needs of veterans.

PROGRAM SERIES 01: Veterans' Interests

This program series provides a subsidy payment to each of the 13 veterans' groups to support the needs of their memberships.

Program 01.01: Subsidy

This program supports the activities of the 13 veterans' groups. Activities include assisting veterans in the benefits claiming process, transporting veterans to VA medical facilities, assisting veterans with job placement and training, and helping homeless and needy veterans find the assistance that they need.

What the Budget Buys:

- Each organization will receive the same level of subsidy as was received in fiscal year 2005.
